

Sample Post-Evaluation and Follow-up Evaluation for “Makeover Your Leftovers” Program

Here are some basic post-evaluation and later follow-up evaluation questions you might use for the “Makeover Your Leftovers” program. Questions or comments? Contact Alice Henneman at ahenneman1@unl.edu

Post-evaluation Immediately After the Program

1. Did you learn something new in this program?
 - Yes
 - No, but it reaffirmed something I already knew
 - Nothing new was learned or reaffirmed
2. Will you make any changes based on what you’ve learned in this program?
 - Yes
 - No, but it reaffirmed something I was already doing
 - No changes will be made
3. Please share any additional comments you may have regarding this program:

Follow-up evaluation sent out after the program

If participants have given you their contact information (email or mailing address) for a follow-up evaluation, the following might be used in what you feel is an appropriate follow-up time for your group.

As a reminder, (write in number of months) months ago you participated in the “Makeover Your Leftovers” program given by (write in name of your organization). Please take a moment to answer a follow-up questions about your experience.

1. Did you make any changes based on what you’ve learned in this program?
 - Yes
 - No, but it reaffirmed something I was already doing
 - No changes will be made
2. If yes is selected, what did you do differently because of this program?
3. Please share any additional comments you may have regarding this program: